

The Royal Sussex
Regiment

Nominal Roll 5th Battalion

1914 – 1918

(West Sussex Record Office RSR MS 5/82)

Indexed and printed for the West Sussex Record Office
P. Pledger. Selsey. December 2000.

PREFACE

The Royal Sussex Regiment expanded to more than twenty battalions during the course of the First World War.

Of these the 5th (Cinque Ports) Battalion, a Territorial unit recruiting primarily from East Sussex, is probably the best documented, with a good series of nominal rolls and battalion orders, currently being indexed by Mr. P. Pledger and Major J.F. Ainsworth.

The original document lists the NCO's and men of the 5th Battalion who served overseas, in France, Belgium and Italy, in 1915-1918. It records regimental number, rank, name, company, and dates of embarkation, movements, postings, promotions, punishments, wounding, hospitalisation, and death.

Documents such as these are of considerable value to researchers studying family and military history and the ease of their use is greatly assisted by the painstaking work of our small team of transcribers and indexers to whom we are all immensely grateful.
